where we can get fresh and usual size manetys for the same price ^{with} charge the only suggestion we can propose is that, we shall leave entirely to one of your estimers Mr Shivers who ever he will say the manetys are worth we are willing to pay you, for it, otherwise we can not receive same for not more than 6/- per hundred, then we can assure you that we shall loose money by it, if same were fresh we should be able to sell it better, as it is we do hardly know what to do with it.

Respectfully your faithful
 J. Carr & Co
